These Annual Meetings, addressed at each session by prominent speakers, are always devoted to the discussion of some topic which challenges the interest of informed persons in the social sciences.

The importance of our Annual Meetings is widely recognized, evidenced by the fact that a large number of leading institutions and organizations both in the United States and in other countries appoint delegates to attend them.

If it is not feasible for your representatives to make a special trip for the purpose, you may know of persons who will be in or near Philadelphia on April 2 and 3, and whom you would like to designate as delegates.

When we receive from you the names and addresses of your delegates, we shall be glad to communicate with them directly and give them further details. We hope you will act promptly, since we wish to include your organization in the list printed in our program.

The July, 1971 issue of The Annals will contain the platform addresses and will be distributed to all members of the Academy. Those who are not members may order copies if they desire.
